Board Reports

Joy Beery- Ms. Beery thanked everyone who made remote learning a success on inclement weather days. She was impressed with Journey's Focus on Learning presentation and was excited to hear that they are being prepared to enter the job market when they graduate. She also shared that she has been utilizing Turner Recreation, and it is very welcoming.

Becky Billigmeier- Ms. Billigmeier enjoyed the Focus on Learning presentation by Journey School of Choice and she congratulated those with new administrative positions.

Jeff Davidson- Mr. Davidson congratulated the PRIDE Award winners. He shared that he enjoyed the presentation by Journey School of Choice and feels that Dr. Lizar seems to be connecting well with the students. He appreciates how the students at JSOC are still allowed to participate in clubs/activities at THS. He also shared that he has only heard good things from community members regarding the remote learning days.

Bryan Fishbaugh- Mr. Fishbaugh thanked everyone that was involved with virtual learning. He also thanked Turner Recreation for providing more activities for the community to participate in. The Journey School of Choice presentation was neat, and it was great to see the students planning for their futures.

Steve Russell- Mr. Russell shared that he was glad Dr. Dandoy encouraged the district to have remote learning on the inclement weather days, even when other schools did not do it. He also shared that Journey seems to be a unique program that is great for students, and he also appreciates the growth at Turner Recreation.
