Superintendent's Report

Dr. Dandoy shared that he is excited to get students back in class for the second semester. He offered his condolences regarding the passing of Janet Waugh and shared that she was a great source of Turner Pride, and he appreciates everything she did for students. He also shared that it is Board Appreciation month, and he thanked our board members for everything they do.

Board Reports

Joy Beery- Ms. Beery shared that Janet Waugh will be missed and many people respected her. She also shared that she is recovering well after her surgery.

Jeff Davidson- Mr. Davidson shared that Janet Waugh was a kind, gentle, sweet person and he was sad to hear of her passing.

Bryan Fishbaugh- Mr. Fishbaugh congratulated the PRIDE Award winners and shared that he enjoyed the Focus on Learning presentation. He also shared that he enjoyed the holiday gathering and participated in the blood drive at TRC yesterday.

Daniel Soptic- Mr. Soptic shared that the board holiday get together was fun and he thanked everyone on the grounds crew that handled the snow cleanup.

Steve Russell- Mr. Russell thanked the facilities and grounds crews for their great job removing the snow, which was much appreciated. He also offered his condolences to the family of Janet Waugh and shared that she did a lot for the community.

Theresa Rangel- Ms. Rangel offered her condolences to the family of Janet Waugh. She did a lot for education and was a huge advocate for Turner schools. She thanked Dr. Dandoy for his decision making last week during the snow days and also thanked the staff for clearing all of the snow. She shared that she attended the Turner Recreation board meeting last Thursday where they received an update on the wrestling and football programs. She also participated in the blood drive at TRC yesterday.
