Public Comment

There was no public comment.

Turner Recreation Commission Update

Ms. Wendi Bono, Director of Turner Recreation and Mr. Florez, Turner Recreation Commission Board Chairperson provided an update on Turner Recreation. Construction of the park fence at Highland Park has stopped due to the fence not being up to code. The contractor did not pull permits for the project, so they are working with the architect and contractor to correct the issues so they can restart the project. Construction has started on the Turner Recreation building to mitigate issues that were caused from the water damage the Boxing Club caused. The bonfire comes back tomorrow evening, and the Swim Academy has started.

Superintendent's Report

Dr. Dandoy shared that the boys' varsity soccer team is currently leading their conference. The athletics department is starting participation in a program called Unified Bowling. In this program, special needs students participate on a bowling team with peer student athletes from the high school. He also shared that Lauren Aiello was awarded the Sunflower Award from her professional organization and homecoming activities are taking place this week.

Board Reports

Joy Beery- Ms. Beery reminded everyone Turner Days is coming up.

Jeff Davidson- Mr. Davidson congratulated Ms. Aiello on her award. He also shared that Turner Recreation's presentation was awesome and he appreciates all of Ms. Bono's efforts at the TRC.

Bryan Fishbaugh- Mr. Fishbaugh also congratulated Ms. Aiello on her awards and congratulated Mr. Russell on his daughter's wedding. He shared he is looking forward to Turner Days and it is exciting to hear about the programs at Turner Recreation doing well.

Steve Russell- Mr. Russell congratulated Ms. Aiello on her award and shared that he enjoys hearing about the programs taking place at Turner Recreation. They seem to be on a good path. He also shared that the pond at the high school is looking nice.

Theresa Rangel- Ms. Rangel congratulated Ms. Aiello on her very well-deserved award.
