Superintendent's Report

Dr. Dandoy shared that he enjoyed the Sixth Grade Academy's Focus on Learning presentation this evening. He also shared that he enjoyed Turner Days and thought the Turner Days committee did a great job. Attached to the agenda in ESB is a Food Service department update which board members can review and parent/teacher conferences will take place this week. The Unified Government toured the school buildings this week and they are also offering a drive-up vaccine clinic this Thursday night at Turner Middle School for the flu vaccine and Covid booster.

Board Reports

Joy Beery- Ms. Beery shared that Turner Days was fantastic and that she had a great group of people that helped put it together that she would like to thank. She also thanked the community for coming out and participating in Turner Days this year.

Becky Billigmeier- Ms. Billigmeier shared that Turner Days was a great event and she was shocked at the number of vendors there this year. She also shared that she enjoyed the Focus on Learning Presentation by the Sixth Grade Academy.

Jeff Davidson- Mr. Davidson shared that Turner Days was great and thanked Joy Beery and her team for putting it together. He also shared that he enjoys hearing the marching band outside practicing in the mornings.

Bryan Fishbaugh- Mr. Fishbaugh shared that the Sixth Grade Academy did a great job on their Focus on Learning presentation this evening and it was great to see the students come and speak. He also shared that he was glad that he was finally able to participate in the parade and march down the parade route. It was great to see the community and hand out candy to the children.

Steve Russell- Mr. Russell shared that the Sixth Grade Academy knocked it out of the park with their Focus on Learning presentation this evening and it was great to see the students come in for the presentation. He also shared that this year's Turner Days was one of the best Turner Days we've ever had. The parade was fun, he enjoyed handing out candy, and the car show was also incredible. A community member at Turner Days shared that she feels Turner is a great school district and she appreciates everything that the district does, and she asked that Mr. Russell let the other board members know as well.

Theresa Tillery- Ms. Tillery shared that she is looking forward to parent/teacher conferences this week. She also shared that Turner Days was great and the parade was fun.
